YOUR PERSONAL HOROSCOPE

Peace loving, impeccable manners in the pursuit of a good life, intelligent in business with a creative mind but sometimes moody and indifferent.

You are practical and persevering, solid and reliable, regular in habits, sometimes a bit wet behind the ears and stubborn as mules. Your love of money and the comfort it can bring may make you materialistic in outlook. You are most suited to a practical career that brings with it a few surprises and plenty of money.

You are quick and clever, highly amusing and quite outrageous in appearance but underneath this crazy exterior is a background of true talent and very hard work. You may be a touch arrogant. You take relationships very seriously and make safe and reliable partners.

Being so very sensual as well as patient, you make an excellent lover. Your biggest downfall comes later in life when you have a tendency to plonk yourself down in front of the television night after night, tuning out the rest of the world. Another problem is you may have a 'pet hate', which you will harp on about at any given opportunity. Your virtues are common sense, loyalty, responsibility and a pleasant, non-hostile approach to others. You are much brighter than anyone gives you credit and it is hard to beat you in an argument because you usually know what you're talking about. You make a wonderful friend.
